

PRESS NOTE

It was a matter of great honour and privilege to have amongst us an alumnus of repute, Sh. Sanjay Kundu, School no. V-59 of 81 batch IPS officer of 1989 batch from Haryana.

A dynamic and motivated officer with 32 years of experience, he is a transformational leader with the ability to change challenges into opportunities Sh. Kundu has been Principal secretary to the CM of Himachal Pradesh and Additional Principal secretary to the CM.

Sh. Sanjay Kundu has received Commendation Certificate and Award from the government of Himachal Pradesh for successfully detecting and recovering the statues of Lord Raghunath and other deities which had been stolen from the Shri Raghunath Temple. He has also won UNESCO award in Leadership in water Resources Management, United Nations Medal and Bar, President Police Medal for distinguished service, Police medal for Gallantry and Kathin Seva medal. Presently he is Director General Police in government of Himachal Pradesh.

In his address to the students he motivated the students to exploit the resources available to them to become successful in life. He persuaded the students to inculcate a habit of reading, which will, not only enhance their vocabulary but will also broaden their horizon.

Principal & Director, Col. Ashok Mor, presented a memento to Sh. Kundu and thanked him for his highly inspirational talk.
